The following are extracts of the Articles of Association with reference to membership of the Company.

Article

Members

3. The number of ordinary members with which the Association proposes to be registered is unlimited.

4. Eligibility for Membership of the Association shall be "any person who had an active involvement with any branch of Motorsport held in Scotland, 25 years prior to the current year. This would include competitors, organisers, officials, and those involved in vehicle maintenance", and who has paid the Registration fee.

5. The admission of members shall be in the absolute power and discretion of the Board, which may refuse admission or terminate membership on any grounds which it considers reasonable, without giving reasons.

6. Cessation of Membership A Member shall forthwith cease to be a member if he/she dies, or resigns by sending notice in writing to that effect to the Secretary. In addition any member found to have brought the Association into disrepute will have his/her membership terminated.

7. Registration Fee All new members admitted shall be due to pay the Registration Fee of £20 on the date of admission. The Registration Fee may be altered on a resolution so to do at a General Meeting of the Association.

Annual Subscription An Annual subscription was introduced on a resolution at the 2021 Annual General Meeting to be collected from 1st January 2022 at a cost of £20 payable annually after first year of Registration.

I wish to apply for membership of the Veterans of Scottish Motorsport Association and I enclose my Registration fee of £20, and I understand and accept the above articles of Association of the Veterans of Scottish Motorsport Association.
